

The Jewish Cemetery of Iagorlik

(Yagorlik, Ягорлик)

In 18th century town was part of Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth, in 19th century was part of Podolia gubernia of Russian Empire. Now the town is in Moldova Republic, Transnistria region.

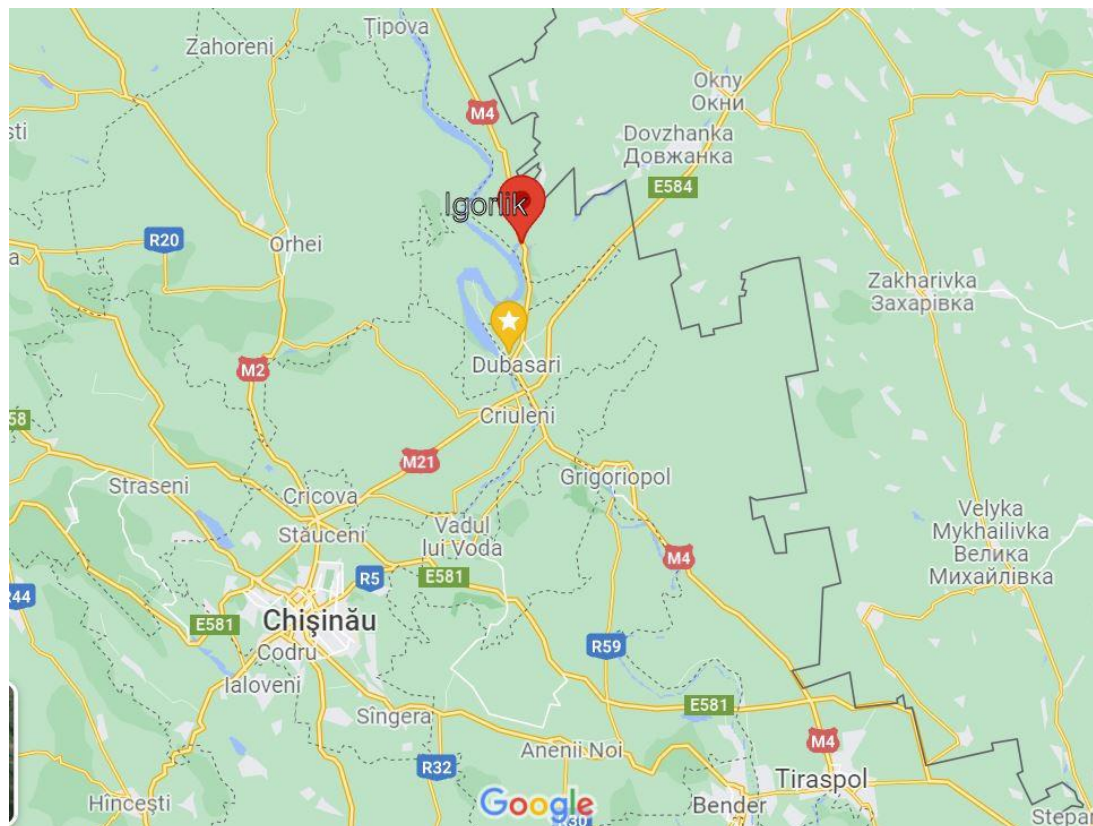

ЕВРЕЙСКОЕ КЛАДБИЩЕ Ягорлык, Молдавия, Транснистрия

Final report, Yefim Kogan, 27 December 2021

The cemetery was destroyed and there only a several of remaining tombstones and fragments.

The photographs were donated by Iuriy Svet, Kishinev. Many thanks to Iuriy.

Iagorlik on Google Maps. You can see close by towns of Dubossary, Orhei, Okny.

In 1802 there were 15 Jewish families in town, from total of 34 families. All Jews belonged to Middle Class. In 1926 there were 332 Jews in town from 924 of total population.

Coordinates of the Iargolyk Jewish cemetery is 47.379380, 29.142805

We have only 11 images of graves, and all of them will be listed below. 11 records were sent to JOWBR and will be available at JewishGen in Summer of 2022.

Avraham Itzhak ben Daniel David

19 Shevat, 5634

(February 6, 1874)

Sarah bat ?

Look at the engraving at the top!

? Unknown

5597

(1836/1837)

? Unknown

All broken, no inscription

All broken, no inscription

12/25/2021, Yefim Kogan