

Eliyahu Meitus poet of Love, Desperation and Hope

And how his poetry volume prompted a genealogical research thousands of miles away!

“I am just a man with a strange name,
Meitus, and I got this name by chance”

Who was Eliyahu Meitus

- ELIYAHU MEITUS
- (1892 Kishinev, Bessarabia – 1979 Tel Aviv, Israel)
- Poet, writer, and translator
- Zionist activist
- Educator

Eliyahu Meitus poetry

- Shirim - Poems, (1943)
- Balladot mi-Nof ha-Yaldut – Ballads from a Childhood Landscape, (1954)
- Triolets (1961)
- Bi-Kezeh ha-Gesher ha-Sheni – On the Edge of the Second Bridge (1967, sonnets)
- Editor of the anthology of modern Hebrew poetry Shiratenu ha-Hadashah - Our New Poetry, (1938)

Dr. Ella Romm

- Genealogy Works:
 - My Jewish Bessarabian Roots, San Diego, 2013, 2 vols.
 - Eliyahu Meitus: A Grandniece's Book about a Hebrew Poet. Ella Romm, Michael Romm and Sheli Fain. San Diego, 2015
 - From Bessarabia to... Story of a Life", by Yuliy Vaysman, recorded by Ella Romm, translated from Russian by Ella Romm and Michael Romm, 2019, Part 1.
 - Available at: <http://www.lulu.com/shop>
- Poetry
 - The Extraordinary Adventure. Ella Romm, Michael Romm, San Diego, 2012

Available on Amazon