

JGSGW October Meeting

Moving Forward

October 28, 2018 B'nai Israel Congregation, 6301 Montrose Road, Rockville, MD

10AM-12N Beginners and Intermediate workshops 1PM Mavens Table and Schmooze 1:30 PM Meeting oin us at our regular meeting for a panel discussion featuring several JGSGW members describing how discoveries made during the IAJGS Conference in Warsaw, or on pre-or post-conference trips, moved their research forward. You will hear how new techniques, research tips, or on-site document searches resulted in ah-ha! moments, and proven or disproven theories.

WORKSHOPS: In the morning we will again offer the JGSGW Beginners Workshop. The Workshop starts with an introduction to Jewish genealogy, beginning with basic guidelines and strategies, DNA, online resources, local and national resources, and the holdings of culture in the JGSGW library at B'nai Israel. The workshop is open FREE to members of JGSGW. Non-members may join JGSGW the Scendants in advance of the workshop and participate in the workshop will be limited to 20 enrollees.

In addition, a new and revised Intermediate Workshop will be offered (also free to members).

CLASSES are limited to 20 participants each and registration is required. To register, email jgsgw@jgsgw.org.

JGSGW Guest Attendance Policy: Meetings and most events are free to JGSGW members. Non-members may attend for a fee of $5. If they decide to join JGSGW at the meeting or event, the $5 will be applied toward membership. Members who require personal assistance due to a health condition or disability may bring an assistant at no charge.