Finding Records for your Towns

Try these approaches:

- Check the Ukraine RD Town Page for your town. You can get to it by using the Town Search box in the upper right corner of every page on the Ukraine RD Website. If this does not work, try just the first few letters or alternative spellings.
- Search the JewishGen Gazetteer at: <https://www.jewishgen.org/Communities/LocTown.asp>, or the JewishGen Communities database at: <https://www.jewishgen.org/Communities/Search.asp>. Can't find the town? Try alternative search methods (found at the bottom of the search page).
- Check if your town has a KehilaLinks website at: <http://kehilalinks.jewishgen.org/Ukraine.html>.
- Search the JewishGen Ukraine Database at: <http://www.jewishgen.org/databases/Ukraine/>. This is a master index of all Ukraine-related data that has been submitted to JewishGen.
- Search the All Galicia Database at: <https://www.geshergalicia.org/all-galicia-database/>.
- Search the JewishGen Discussion List Archive for your town. Post a message to the Discussion List asking if anyone has obtained records for it from Ukraine. Not a member? You can subscribe to the JewishGen Discussion List at <https://groups.jewishgen.org/g/main>.
- Send a message to others listed on JewishGen Family Finder for your town at <http://www.jewishgen.org/jgff/>, asking if anyone has obtained records for it from Ukraine.
- Search the American Joint Distribution Committee online archives at: <http://archives.jdc.org/>
- Check Miriam Weiner's Routes to Roots website at: <https://www.rtrfoundation.org/index.shtml> to find out what records she has identified as available in various Eastern European Archives.
- Search for records of Shoah victims and survivors at the US Memorial Holocaust Museum at: <https://www.ushmm.org/>, Yad Vashem at: <https://www.yadvashem.org/>, and the International Tracing Service at: <https://arolsen-archives.org/en/>.
- Check FamilySearch for Ukrainian records that they possess and for links to other Ukrainian resources at: https://www.familysearch.org/en/wiki/Ukraine_Online_Genealogy_Records.
- Do you still have questions? Reach out to a member of the JewishGen Ukraine RD Board. Their contact information can be found at: https://www.jewishgen.org/Ukraine/ABT_Board.asp
