

Michael Finckel

Michael lives in Chisinau where he was born in 1972. He studied Spanish and international economic relations at the local Universities, later obtained MPA at the Academy of Public Administration at Presidency of Moldova.

Since 1995, he has worked on the leading positions at the key Jewish organizations in Moldova – Joint Branch, JCC KEDEM, Center of Training and Professional Development and Agudath Israel in Moldova.

Since 2009, Michael managed more than 15 international educational and cultural projects.

As a writer, published five books of poetry, essays, and translations of poems from Spanish and English. Also was published in local and foreign anthologies, newspapers, collections.

Session: Rediscovered Rashkov: 300 years of Jewish history