THE CHEVRA KADISHA.

People undertaking voluntary work are often subjected to criticism.

It is therefore all the more necessary to praise when the opportunity occurs.

It was my misfortune to lose my Mother and the services of the above were by necessity invoked. May I therefore pay tribute to their efficiency, consideration, and kindness in the exercise of this very exacting task.

It is not until one has the need to come in close contact with this work that the full impact of the wonderful job they do is fully appreciated.

My grateful thanks also to those who so kindly associated themselves with condolences.

H. AMSEL.
