FOR OUR YOUNG READERS

To all children who attend the Talmud Torah. (If you are too young to read and understand this, get your mummy or daddy to read it to you).

On Sunday, 19th of October, I attended the Assembly before classes began. I was disgusted at the behaviour of you children. You seem to have forgotten that the Synagogue is a place of worship.

You came in shouting and whistling. Some of you ran on to the Bimah. Would you do this in your school assembly hall? I'm sure you would not. Would the Clifton boys behave like this in chapel? No. So why this dreadful behaviour in the Synagogue?

While Reverend Moddel was speaking, either reading from the Prayer Book or asking questions, there was a continual chatter and loud talking which could be heard even outside the Synagogue. Would you children behave like this at school? Would you chatter like monkeys if your master or teachers were speaking to you or your classmates? I know you would not.

Let me tell you that your standards of behaviour should be even better than they are in school. I sincerely hope that next time I attend the Assembly there will be a distinct improvement, and that there will be no more of this disgraceful conduct.

Dr. Sydney Curwen.
