Habonim was reborn in Bristol this spring with the minimum of labour pains. Now that it has been weaned, it is, perhaps, time to look back on the season's events.

The first meeting was a mock Seder, held in the Synagogue Hall, with both parents and children present. Several other meetings were held in the Hall, some on the Pesach theme. As general dog's body, the madrich, of course, got Pharaoh's job!

By far the most successful aspect of the activities to date has been the outings. The sun has favoured us and, as a result, we have all got pleasant memories of the Cabot Tower and the Zoo. The parents have entered into the spirit of things as enthusiastically as the children (do we detect a certain nostalgia?). They have come with us to Chepstow and Dodington where they were able to have a good schloff while their offspring drove the madrichim up the (castle) wall!

As the session draws to its close, we would like to thank all who have made it such a success. The enthusiasm of our eighteen children has made it all great fun and we hope that our kinderle have lovely .../

holidays, and look forward to seeing them again in September.

Shalom ulehitraot, Jackie, Jeremy, Johnny and Hubert.

At the end of the first season, the parents would like to thank Jackie and Jeremy Charles, Johnny Curwen, Saville Kushner and Hubert Newman for the interest they have shown in organising Habonim.

Hamard Private Catering Service as the licenced Kosher Caterers for Cardiff operating under the supervision of the Rav. of Cardiff are very pleased to extend their services to the Bristol and S.West areas.

The Catering Company, successors of Messrs. Wm. Hancock have been providing a full and comprehensive catering service to the Communities of Swansea, Cardiff and Newport for over eighteen months.

As Specialists in providing catering, we are able to provide a full service of Buffets, Luncheons and all types of sit-down meals including many popular Jewish dishes such as Blintzes, Lockshen, Strudel and cheese cake.

The Company has a reputation for providing the finest food and service to match any London Caterer, using best Kosher meats and fresh salmon and offering pastries, gateau etc. from one of the best London Bakers.

The Company would be pleased to discuss any possible functions, wedding or Barmitzva celebration, from finding a suitable Hall, to suggesting menus and helping with photographers, flowers, toast masters etc.

The company looks forward to making the acquaintance of the Jewish Community in Bristol and the Managing Director Mr. C. L. Pollard would be personally pleased to come over to Bristol and discuss functions with anyone interested.

(The above was received from Messrs. Hamard Catering Ltd., of Regent St., Barry, Glam. - Tel: Barry 77131)

BRISTOL JEWISH WOMEN'S GUILD

An evening meeting took place on Monday, 1st June at 27 Reedley Road. Our hostess was Mrs. Lever.

The Garden Supper held on Sunday, 7th June, was an outstanding success in every way. With such glorious weather and such a perfect setting, it really was a most wonderful evening. The delightful playing by the guitarist, which encouraged dancing on the terrace, proved the highlight of the evening.

Our special thanks are due to Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Dembo for so kindly letting us have the use of their beautiful house and garden; also to .../

the six hostesses - Mrs. Sacof, Mrs. Roydon, Mrs. Sally Dembo, Mrs. Marcia Gee, Mrs. Rosina Smith and Mrs. Naomi Dembo - for their very fine effort and for putting on such an elegant meal, which was greatly enjoyed by everyone.

Monday evening, 6th July

Annual General Meeting in the Synagogue Hall. It is hoped that all members will make every effort to attend this meeting. Please send in your nominations for the election of officers as soon as possible to the Chairman or Secretary of the Guild.

C. Culank,
Hon. Sec.
