Thursday, 7th November at 8.00.p.m.

Sidney Shipton, General Secretary of the Zionist Federation, will be talking on the Palestinian problem. With the P.L.O. gaining international platforms at the U.N. recently, it is particularly important that we should understand the situation and Israel's current thinking. This is an outstanding opportunity to hear an interesting Speaker on an important topic. Please make every effort to attend, and anyone who has not been to our Meetings before, is of course, most welcome.

Thursday, 21st November at 8.00.p.m.

Cyril Simkins, a chemical engineer with the Dead Sea Chemical Works, is coming to talk about Israel and the life he has made there for himself since going on Aliyah from Manchester in 1968. Mr. Simkin's political views are likely to be of considerable interest, as he is a member of Aguda.

KITTY AND GABRIEL BALINE-KURTII's, 42, Kewstoke Road, Stoke Bishop, Bristol 9.

Provisionally arranged for 5th December, is a Talk to honour the memory of Haim Weizmann by a distinguished guest Speaker.

Later in December, we plan to hold our A.G.M. at which we hope to show some recent short films from Israel. At the A.G.M. will be an opportunity to discuss the role of the Society. Proposals of a formal nature may be sent in to the Hon. Secretary in advance of the Meeting, or put at the Meeting itself.
