SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

- * Mazeltov and Best Wishes to Paul and Rene Davidson who recently celebrated their Silver Wedding Anniversary (June 13th).

A hearty Mazeltov to Tony and Eve Gordon on the Birth of their baby, Linsey Faye, born Thursday June 10th, and "weighing in" at 6lbs.5ozs. (we have not yet gone "metric" -Eds.)

We bid a sad farewell to that popular young couple, Paul and Shelly Blackstein, (with Simon and "Nasher"), who are leaving us to try their luck in the Big City. We wish them Success and Happiness, and, as with all our exiles, the hope that we will receive from them the occasional contribution to our journal. (see below).

Paul, Shelley and Simon Blackstein would like to thank all family and friends for making their five year stay in Bristol so pleasant and also for our wonderful send-off!! New address:- 28, Irvine Ave, Kenton, Harrow, Middlesex.

JOINT ISRAEL APPEAL (J.I.A.) 1976

Members of the Bristol Committee of the J.I.A. will soon be calling on you for your donation to the Appeal. They realise only too well that the economic situation makes it difficult for even well wishers to give as generously as they might.

But consider the plight of our brothers and sisters in Israel. Taxation is enormous, inflation almost uncontrollable, a defence budget which saps the resources, leaving hardly anything for the social services, public health, child welfare, housing and (to a lesser degree) education. For the maintenance of these we, in the Diaspora, must help.

Israel must survive for your sake as much as for the sake of the Israelis.

Please don't fail. Give generously and answer the call as you have done in the past.

Shalom,

Sydney Curwen.
Chairman, Bristol J.I.A.
