Congratulations to Jeffrey Handel who has been accepted by Charing Cross Hospital to do Medicine in the next Academic Year.

We were saddened to learn of the passing of the well loved local G.P. Dr. Paul Sinclair who practiced in Bristol for very many years. He was the founder of a number of local Community Projects, the most recent being "SHE 7". Although not a present member of the community he did much through his practice to foster good Anglo-Jewish Relationships.

BRISTOL ZIONIST SOCIETY.

THURSDAY, 9TH FEBRUARY. AT 8.00P.M. "LIFE IN ISRAEL SINCE BEGIN".

DAVID HYMAN was born in Jerusalem. His parents left the U.K. some 50 years ago. Before becoming a shaliach he worked as Head of the Internal Audit of the Ministry of Communication, Jerusalem. He is a graduate of the Hebrew University, Jerusalem in Economics and Political Science, and has further degrees in International Relations from the London School of Economics and in Business Administration from Jerusalem. He is therefore excellently qualified by education and personal experience to talk on the topic he has chosen. This talk too would be of interest we feel to many who are not themselves members of the Society.

It has been reported to us recently that our 'out of town' subscribers and friends enjoy reading the "Recorder" and "wait anxiously for each issue to drop through the letter box" quote unquote.

This being the case, we extend a cordial invitation to all ex-Bristolians to write to us at any time with their news or articles, which we would be delighted to publish.

30th December, 1977.

Dear Mr. Gee,

Once again Christmas has passed and to yourself, your wife and all of your colleagues a very big thank you for helping us.

I am sorry that this year we had the awful problem of the catering staff at the B.R.I. hovering over us, and I really do greatly appreciate your patience, and of course that of your wife, when I was constantly phoning her.

Sister Bernadine told me she does not know how she would get through Christmas without your group, and has in her way, as she says, already 'booked' you for next year!

Very happy New Year to you, and once again thank you very much.

Yours sincerely,

(signed) J. Parker (Mrs).

Jews are peculiar it's said
When praying they cover their head
They read right to left, in a manner bereft,
But few of them know what they've read.

Jews are somewhat strange folk
Fond of a good ethnic joke
They dote on their kids, hate being called "yids"
And prefer buying clothing "bespoke".

Jews are a mighty odd lot
Not given to drinking or "pot"
But they'll spend on a daughter, much more than they oughter
Including a deal they ain't got!

Jews by repute, stick together
The proverbial birds of a feather
But there are sometimes days, when they go different ways
It usually depends on the weather!

Jews are all terribly rich
It's hard to tell which one is which
When he gets in his car, is he worker or czar,
Or a barrow boy off to his pitch!?

If you know what a Jew is, you think
Please to put pen into ink
Maybe you know better, so send me a letter
Addressed to the poet GAZINK.
