Dear Editor,

May I, through the columns of the Recorder, send my regards and farewell greetings to my friends, largely, but not only, "Friday Nighters". I had effectively left Bristol a few years ago when I went to work in Taunton for a year, followed by a year in Plymouth. I had not been long back in Bristol when an opportunity arose in Manchester, and I shall be going there in November.

POETRY SHMOETRY.

Said Anwar to Menachim, "We'd better get it right"
Or this fellow Jimmy Carter will keep us here all night!"
"We'll sign this little treaty that we'll never go to war,
But of course, we'll carry on the same way as before."
"You negotiate with the Knesset - I'll straighten out my lads,
And we'll let old Sirus press it with the other dropout cads."
"Give my best to Golda (don't tell her that we blew it),
I'll pass your wish to Arafat - but I don't think that he'll do it!!
"The most important thing is, that we've kept the status quo,
Now I can go back home and say let MY people go!"

Thank you fans, you're very kind,
But now you've left me in a bind.
Everytime the month comes round,
I'll be three feet above the ground,
Suspended by your glowing praises,
While sweating out elusive phrases!
I tell you folks, for what it's worth,
It quickly brings me down to earth,
And now and then it makes one think,
Why DID I call myself GAZINK!
