SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

.....

Gazina and Nat Sacof would like to thank everyone who joined them "at home " to help celebrate the occasion of their Diamond Wedding, and to all the many friends & relations for their cards, phone calls, flowers and many kindnesses making it a day to remember. (Us to, it's not every day you have a chance to celebrate a Diamond Wedding ! Eds.)

.....

On behalf of Karen, Charles, June, Sidney, Harold & myself, I would like to thank everyone who participated in making our wonderful Simcha such a joyous occasion. A special " thank you " to Rev. Moddel & Len Gould for the Ceremony, and Registrar Gerald Levy, to "our Nat, and the numerous Ushers. Thanks also to Marcia and Gerald who went back to our house after the Ceremony had started, to collect the Chollas we forgot to bring! To Sam, Gerald and Henry without whom the Chupa may not have been there- to Eve Gordon for the lovely "surprise" Wedding Cake, which the Bride knew nothing of until she saw it after the luncheon. To Joyce and Dave Perry for their help in ensuring that the luncheon arrangements went smoothly. To all my friends who helped me prepare such a sumptuous spread for my relatives and guests. My heart goes out to you all for a day we shall never forget, and we are only sorry that everyone we wanted would not be there due to strict limitations of space.

Golda.

As usual come the Yomin Noraim The Council wrote to ask Len Gould to officiate and help Rev. Moddel with the Services. Little did we know that Len would have to take over completely- and didn't he do well !! So as president, may I on behalf of the Congregation show our gratitude and congratulate Len not only for taking over nearly all the Services, but also for doing such an excellent job. May we be able to call on his services for many years to come.

.....

Zara and Stuart Hirenberg would like to thank all their friends and relatives for their kind cards and gifts, sent to them on the occasion of the birth of their daughter Charlene Rachell.

It is with deep regret that we learn of the untimely death of Marcia's sister, Fay Finesilver who died on Saturday 25th October at the Hammer Smith Hospital after a short illness. She leaves a Husband, Son and two Daughters, and it is to them, Marcia, her Mother, Sister and all the family that we send our Condolences and wish them Long Life free from further trouble.

MARKS & SPENCER FASHION SHOW

Months of planning, scheming, meetings and sheer hard work- and poof -it was all over. But what a night /, A packed house, a fabulous show, and exciting Prize Draw hosted by T.V. personality Graham Miller, the presence of the Lord Mayor, and we hope when the final tally is made up, a substantial addition to the Restoration Fund.

Without distracting in any way the hard work put in by ALL the Committee, a very special vote of thanks to Min Kushner for all the personal hours of sheer hard slog in Chairing the Committee, and her efforts above and beyond the call of duty, to Bert Leffman for his fantastic handling of the production of the brochure, and for the enormous amount of revenue raised by him personally from advertising, to Colin Berkovitch acting as Treasurer and controller of Ticket Sales - a lot of work -, to Henry Springer for the presentation of one of the main prizes, and his hard work controlling Brochure Sales & the Prize Draw, to Harold Seymour for arranging the printing of tickets, and to all the Committee and Auxillary workers for their hard work working support in making the evening such a success,

POLACK BRANCH & AJEX

The Annual REMEMBRANCE Parade of Jewish Ex Servicemen and Women will take place this year on the Horse Guards Parade, London, on Sunday 16th November.

As there is ever increasing tension with Neo- Fascist organisations in England, it is most important to show our solidarity this year, and it is hoped that there may be a respectable turnout from Bristol. The Inspecting Officer this year is The Countess Mountbatten of Burma. (Come on all you Ex WRENS AEs etc)

A number of slight alterations have also been made this year to assist the elderly (anyone over 25 !), by cutting down (even further), the marching time to an absolute minimum (no longer than 10 mins).

We hope to run two cars for this trip - more if needed - or some of you make wish to make a weekend of it and travel the night before. Everyone is welcome from Whatever War. Anyone wishing lifts please contact me as soon as possible.

Shalom, all!!

Yes - We are still in business!!

It had been our intention to start our season in October with a speaker from Bristol University who had visited Israel under the sponsorship of the Friends of Israel Educational Trust, on whose behalf we had agreed to set up the meeting.

However, for a multiplicity of reasons, the idea had to be abandoned at a stage where it was impossible to arrange an alternative meeting and venue.

So we are now back in business on our own behalf - get your diaries out!

THURSDAY 6 NOVEMBER at 8.00p.m.

Last year we started off our season with a cheese and wine party, to which all members, prospective members and friends were invited. This was a great success by any standard, and we are repeating the formula this year.

CYNIL and RUTH HERSHON are our host and hostess for this evening, and we are especially indebted to them because of the very short notice. A charge of £1.00 per person will be made, and we look forward to seeing you at:

PODLACK HOUSE, CLIFTON COLLEGE, BRISTOL 8.

THURSDAY 27 NOVEMBER at 8.00p.m.

Tonight is the ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING of the Society. I know this tends to make members find other engagements for this sort of evening for fear of being 'press-ganged' into the Committee - perhaps the fact that the four main officers are willing to offer themselves for re-election (this year, anyway!) will increase the attendance! After the business part of the evening, we have a number of Israeli and American taped slide shows, including "Massada" and "Grand Canyon Flight" which you can make a choice of seeing.

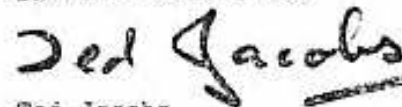

Our host and hostess for this evening will be ERNEST and KATE LEVER at:
27 REEDLEY ROAD, STOKE BISHOP, BRISTOL.

Now - a piece of advance information!

The Zionist Federation consider our Society to be one of the most active of the provincial societies - which I find flattering! However, this is probably why the newly elected Chairman of the Executive, Mr GEOFFREY GELBERG, has expressed the desire for an early opportunity to address. A mutually convenient date has not yet been agreed, but will in all probability be sometime in December.

That's all for the moment

Shalom - lehitraot!

Ted Jacobs
Honorary Secretary.
