OBITUARY

Mark Silverman passed away on Friday 19th Dec. He was born in Bristol and lived here all his life. After he married Nancy in 1941 they set up home in the Dell where they lived with their two daughters until they moved to their flat at Durham Court.

Mark and Nancy took a great interest in communal affairs. They were always present at any function taking an active part in ensuring its success. His loss to the community will be felt for many years, but we hope Nancy will once again settle in Bristol where she is loved by all the members. We wish her and her daughters Jill and Valerie Long Life and hope that by sharing her burden we can help make her life easier to carry on.
