COMMUNAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Waitrose Supermarket, Henleaze, Bristol, are now stocking Kerstein, Empire and Israeli KOSHER poultry, burgers etc.

This is the first time for many years that KOSHER poultry has become available in Bristol, off the shelf, and for the benefit of all, housewives should give this company their support.

On Saturday 16th July, a group of Open University Students will be attending the Shabbat morning service. It would be greatly appreciated if we could ensure a Minyan on this day, as the Students who regularly attend, will be away from Bristol during the holiday period.

A similar group attended last July, and were most appreciative, and gave a generous donation to the Synagogue funds.

COUNCIL MEETING

The next Council Meeting will be held on Thursday 21st July.

LABOUR FRIENDS OF ISRAEL

COLLEGE GREEN FAIR

JULY 16th 1983

Again this year we shall be manning our Stall at the above Fair. The theme of the Fair this year is 'AIR'. We are arranging to publicise 'FL AL' and other flights to Israel, to sell Israeli products and (Hopefully) to serve some Israeli specialities - soups, falafel etc.

Your Chairmen and I will be glad to hear of anyone willing to help in setting up the stall and serving during the day (Tel; Bristol 683115 or Bristol 658448), also if any member has a small boiler or electric frying pan, or multicooker which they will lend us.

July 16th is the day on which the Cathedral holds its Annual Flower Festival, and it is the last day of the Wine Fair, so a large crowd of spectators are expected.

Yours sincerely

BRISTOL JEWISH WOMEN'S GUILD

The Luncheon given by Mrs N, Sacof at her home resulted in the gratifying total of £30 being raised.

The Supper evening, with Tombola, was a financial and social success: over £100 was realised.

Thanks are due to Mr & Mrs Steinberg who had charge of the Tombola for the whole evening; also to those who kindly contributed gifts.

The meeting on June 15th, was mainly in the nature of a Farewell to Mrs Sheridan on her departure to Israel. Mrs Gee and Mrs Dysch provided the special refreshments. The Guild expressed their regret at losing a member, and wished her health and happiness in the future.

Mrs H. Cohen
Secretary.
