ESME LEAPMAN.

MRS. ESME LEAPMAN passed away recently after a short illness at the age of 75. ESME was well known by the Shabbat morning Synagogue attenders. She loved to come to the Services and meet the Congregation at the Kiddush afterwards. Although ESME LEAPMAN may not have been so well known among the members of the community today, her father MR. J. TANCHEN was certainly a V.I.P. in the community many years ago, when he was our President. ESME, who lived in Bath, outlived her husband by some eight years. She leaves two devoted sons, HENRY who lives in London, and RICHARD in Maryland, U.S.A. We wish them and their families Long Life, and Freedom From Further Troubles.

JUNE CHARLES

Although JUNE and JULIAN CHARLES have not been members of the congregation for the last few years, a large number of members knew them, and they had many friends among us. JUNE had been seriously ill for several years, but in earlier days when the CHARLES's first came to Bristol, JUNE & JULIAN were regular attenders at all Social and Religious functions. JUNE was always radiant, and full of fun, and later with their three children, were always very much a part of the community. We will all miss JUNE. To Julian and his family we send our deepest sympathy, and wish them "Long Life".

The visit to NEWPORT SYNAGOGUE for the reading of the MEGILLAH was a resounding success, for which the major credit must go to NITZAN CHEN. His organisational skills and enthusiasm ensured that everything went "according to plan".

The NEWPORT COMMUNITY were the most wonderful hosts, and treated their 'visitors' right royally!

After the reading of the MEGILLAH-enlivened by some unusual fancy dress and even more unusual 'noisemakers', a splendid tea, including the famous Welsh HAMANTACHEN was provided.

This was followed by an amusing PURIMSPIEL, written, presented and performed by BENCIE WOLL, JOHN ADLER & JONATHAN BRODIE, followed by some impromptu CHARADES, and an even more impromptu PIANO RECITAL by a wonderful 99 years young lady, who could fill the slot in any Music Hall!

The entertainment was rounded off with a special 'Kosher' game of BINGO, invented by NITZAN, and presented by SAM SILVERMAN.

What a great evening out. Thanks NEWPORT. Thanks NITZAN. Thanks SUPPORTERS!!!.

At the LIAISON COMMITTEE meeting on MARCH 2ND, the meetings held on JANUARY 5TH. and FEBRUARY 9TH. were discussed. The first, when WILLIAM WALDEGRAVE came to speak was very well attended, and reports suggested it was very interesting, although not necessarily to everyone's taste!

The second was when MICHAEL LORD, Political Editor of the Evening Post came. On this occasion the turnout was poor, which was a great pity as he was a very interesting speaker.

REV. MODELL VISIT & PRESENTATION

On SUNDAY MARCH 12TH., REV. MODELL came back to Bristol for the day. A taxi was sent to collect him from Bournemouth, & in spite of a two hour delay he arrived at 2 p.m. for lunch with MR. & MRS. SAM SILVERMAN. At 3.30 he was warmly welcomed at the SYNAGOGUE and asked to take the MINCHA SERVICE, before proceeding to the FRANK COHEN HALL for the Reception. Nearly 80 members of the Congregation were waiting to give him a V.I.P. welcome. The TEA was arranged by the WOMENS GUILD, who, as usual, excelled themselves. The PRESIDENT, MR. RALPH EMANUEL recalled REV. MODELL's 25 years service to the Community, and presented him with an Antique Silver BECHER, inscribed. REV. MODELL responded by saying how happy his time in Bristol was, and how please he was to be back among the Community again. He was also presented with a cheque in excess of £1,000 by MR. ARNOLD GREENWOOD our TREASURER. REV. MODELL was given a standing ovation and every person in the Hall shook his hand before he left on his return journey. The afternoon proceeded with a most interesting report by DR. RON GREENBAUM, our REPRESENTATIVE to the BOARD OF DEPUTIES, on the HISTORY and working of the Board how it was founded and developed into its present structure. He then answered some interesting questions in some depth until 6 p.m., when a Vote of Thanks to RON was given by our Vice President BOB EMMANUEL. This finished a most enjoyable afternoon.

You will have noticed in last months Recorder, that we, (Sam & Gerald), have resigned as Security Officers. At the time of going to press last month, details were not available, and we feel it our duty to explain the reason for our action. We have both been responsible for the Security arrangements for the past 20 years, and during that time, apathy, and a total lack of interest has deteriorated to an all time low. If, for example, you were visiting a Theatre, or staying at a Hotel, and observed that the fire exits were blocked by tables, chairs and sundry items - would you complain? Of course you would! But WE still allow this to happen, and it gets worse. During the past years, little, or no heed has been given to Security, and the responsibility has become harder to bear. It has been said on many occasions "It may never happen". Well, if that's the case - why pay insurance? Why not save the money? Should we say "Smoking may seriously damage your health", "Eggs may seriously damage your health", "Soft cheese may seriously damage your health"..... GOING TO SHUL MAY SERIOUSLY DAMAGE YOUR HEALTH. But the main reason we resigned, is that we feel we can no longer shoulder the responsibility for the Security of the Congregation under present circumstances.

Dear Sirs,

I should like to offer a sincere "y'shekoach" to all those who took part in the youth service yesterday and I include the girls who added a new dimension to our usual Shabbat Kiddush.

Their performance underlines the fact that this Congregation is going to have to be more and more self reliant if we are to hold regular services.

Although it is twelve months since Reverend Modell became ill there still does not appear to be any candidate coming forward for the vacant post of Minister/Chazan and accordingly we must

THE PERFECT RABBI

Courtesy of Walter Rothschild in Sinai Chronicle (Leeds Reform) translated from a Dutch Jewish Newsletter in turn translated from an Australian paper.

"Results of a computer survey show that the perfect rabbi delivers a sermon of precisely fifteen minutes. He attacks sin, but makes sure that no one is upset.

He works from 8am to midnight, and also acts as Shammash. He earns £40 per week, is smartly dressed, buys good books, drives a good car and gives £40 per week to charity. He is 28 years old, and has 30 years' experience.

He is filled with a passionate desire to work with the youth, and gives all of his time and attention to the older members of the community. The perfect rabbi is always smiling, in an earnest manner. He has a constant feeling for humour, which helps him remain serious in his work.

He visits, daily, fifteen families in the community, plus prisoners and invalids in hospital. He spends his whole time trying to attract members from amongst the uncommitted Jews, and he is always in the office whenever he is needed.

If your rabbi does not match these specifications, send this letter to six other communities who also lack a perfect rabbi. Pack up your rabbi and send him to the community at the top of the list. Within a week you will receive 1,643 rabbis, of which one at least must be perfect.

Believe in this letter! One congregation broke the chain and received its old rabbi back again within three months."

THE SPIRO STUDY GROUP

For the 1989 Summer Term we have what should be a fascinating series of four talks to be given by Mr Howie Jacobson from the Spiro Institute in London, under the title:

From Temple to Synagogue: Aspects of a Jewish Revolution.

May 10th: Temple and Synagogue in a Vacuum

What are the differences and similarities? What is their relationship: Evolutionary? Revolutionary? Complementary? What is the archeological, literary and inscriptional evidence?

May 24th: The Wider World

Was Judaism in late antiquity influenced by Graeco-Roman magical beliefs and astrology? How "paganised" were the rabbis of the Mishna and Palistinian Talmud? What were the effects of Graeco-Roman beliefs on synagogue art, architecture and ritual? Why is the Zodiac a common decoration on synagogue floors?

June 7th: The Unnamed Enemy

What was the effect of the rise and triumph of Christianity on the self-understanding of Jewish communities? Was the development of Jewish messianism influenced by Christianity? Is Christian influence reflected in synagogue architecture? Why did Julian the Apostate (from Christianity!) try to rebuild the Jewish Temple? Why is there no mention of this episode in the Talmud? How did the Jewish masses respond? How even was the fight between Christianity and Judaism? Were they competing for pagan converts?

June 21st: The Lost Voices

What does the historical evidence indicate about the varieties of Jewish practice, self-understanding and self-expression in the formative years of rabbinic Judaism? Did the rabbis whose views have been preserved in the Mishna and Talmud represent a tiny segment of Jewish society? If so, why did they "win"? What is the legacy of this period for the development of rabbinic Judaism? Are there any "lessons" to be learned today about "assimilation" and exclusiveness?

All meetings will be held in the Frank Cohen Hall and start at 8.00 pm. The cost for the series will be £12 (£3 per session) and it would be helpful if the whole sum could be paid in advance - though this should not, please, deter anyone who would prefer to pay for each session on the night. (If you would like to add a donation to study group funds, this would be very welcome - I suggest a maximum of £3). Cheques should be made payable to Spiro Institute Study Group in Bristol and sent to me at 21 Southernhay Avenue, Bristol BS8 4TJ.

'REFLECTIONS'

As I look back on my 'three score years and ten', I feel rather sad at times. Life has gone by so quickly for me with all its riches, experiences, and surprises. I also miss so much the old 'characters' and personalities who have all gone now, and with them an ability to laugh at ourselves. Pondering over those times I realise how dull and uniform we have become. It seems to me the main cause is affluence, and I do not exclude myself from my "condemnation".

When I was young, living in Liverpool, the Community was rich in "one off" character for example "Max the Pipka"-he was the only Jew in town who smoked a pipe! There was "Blind Dukie", who felt his way along the side of a tram to find the doorway, but who could spot an Ace of Spades from 50 yards away! An exaggeration no doubt, but so were all these characters, and larger than life. But, they are all gone now, never to be replaced with their like, giving way to attitudes, and diaries and conformity.

But, on reflection, maybe there is another factor. In the larger Communities there has been an explosion of Orthodoxy, which in my opinion has a smothering effect. In the PINKAY OVOTM that we recite on SHABBAT afternoon, is a phrase "MAKE A FENCE AROUND THE LAW". I ask myself, why a fence? Why not a wall to protect the LAW? After all, a wall is permanent, but if we look at the Berlin wall for instance, this not only keeps ideas in, and originality out, but it imprisons those ideas within. To expand on the theme, a fence is less solid-the implication being that there should be an 'osmosis' of learning and ideas passing through inwards and outwards. This stresses the fact that the Religion is so strong it does not need a wall to enclose it, but a fence through which it flows out to the world.

I wonder if some of our leaders today, are trying to build a wall around the TORAH confining us to uniformity, and encouraging the Ghetto attitude with all its accompanying isolation and segregation.

These are my thoughts on my Birthday, and I would appreciate a response from other readers, with their thoughts on my comments, perhaps in the next issue.
