Who Are We?

JewishGen's Hungarian Special Interest Group (H-SIG) <http://www.jewishgen.org/Hungary/> is for those with Jewish roots in the area known as "greater Hungary" or pre-Trianon Hungary and covers all the territory that was part of Hungary before World War I including all of present-day Hungary and Slovakia and lands that are now within Romania, Ukraine, Austria, Croatia, Bosnia, and Serbia. Go to <http://www.jewishgen.org/JewishGen/DiscussionGroup.htm> to find out how to join.

Hungarian Kingdom-1890

Changing Borders

- Before WWI—64 counties (megye) with Jewish population of about 900,000
- After Treaty of Trianon (1920)—"Upper Hungary" becomes Czechoslovakia and Transylvania is awarded to Romania
- Vienna Award (1938) –southern Slovakia and Transcarpathia to Hungary
- After WWII—eastern Slovakia to Czechoslovakia and Transcarpathia to Ukraine (Zakarpatska oblast)
- Today—All or part of 35 formerly Hungarian counties in Hungary, 26 in Romania, 17 in Slovakia, 5 in Ukraine, and 5 in Serbia

The Dismemberment of the Kingdom of Hungary in Trianon, 1921

National Archives of Hungary

[http://old.mol.gov.hu/index.php?
akt\_menu=574](http://old.mol.gov.hu/index.php?akt_menu=574)

The screenshot shows the homepage of the National Archives of Hungary. At the top, there's a banner with the institution's name and a small illustration of a building. Below the banner, a navigation menu includes links for HOME, FOR VISITORS, FOR RESEARCHES, and PRESERVATION, along with a Hungarian flag icon. A search bar with a magnifying glass icon and the word 'Keresés' is positioned on the right. The main content area has a light orange background. On the left, a sidebar titled 'General information' contains links to 'About us', 'Organization', 'e-Archivum - the unified electronic record system', 'Contact us', 'Database, finding aids', 'Description of holdings', 'Hungarian archives', 'Foreign archives', 'Family research', 'Our awarded colleagues', 'Events', 'Links', and 'Services'. Below this sidebar is a login form with fields for 'Felhasználó:' and 'Jelszó:', and buttons for 'Belép' and 'Regisztráció'. The main content area features several sections with headings in bold: 'Who can research in the National Archives of Hungary?', 'What do you need to do before beginning your research in the National Archives of Hungary?', 'Conditions and regulations of researching', and 'General information concerning the research rooms'. The 'Who can research...' section contains text about who can freely research in the Archives. The 'What do you need to do...' section provides instructions for research procedures. The 'Conditions...' section links to the 'Archives Act (leveltartorv.pdf)'. The 'General information...' section contains text about visitors consulting the Information Service or staff before research begins. At the bottom of the main content area, there's a note about visiting cards and document proofs. To the right of the main content area, there's a sidebar with a heading 'Megújult a MOL honlapja' and two small icons: one for a computer monitor and one for a mobile device.

The screenshot shows the homepage of the National Archives of Hungary. At the top, there's a banner with the text "NATIONAL ARCHIVES OF HUNGARY" and a building illustration. Below the banner are language links for Hungarian, English, and German. The main navigation menu includes "HOME", "FOR VISITORS", "FOR RESEARCHES", and "PRESERVATION". A search bar with a magnifying glass icon and a "OK" button is also present. The central content area is titled "Database, finding aids". It features sections for "Summary inventory" (listing original charters, microfilm collection, and reports on Hungarica Collections), "Parish registers", "Databases made by Arcanum Database Ltd. and the National Archives of Hungary", "Online databases of the National Archives of Hungary", and "Finding aids for researching into the collection of the National Archives of Hungary". There are download links for PDF files. On the right side, there's a sidebar with a "Megújult a MOL honlapja" section featuring two logos: a square one with a document icon and a red rounded square one with a white "ek" logo.
